

THE SCHOOL OF PERFORMING ARTS

Job Opening

Dance Department Director

The School of Performing Arts is looking to fill the role of the Director of Dance. The ideal candidate should have extensive knowledge in dance education and performance. We are looking for a Director who has a visionary spirit and directorial skills to set and achieve goals. This individual must have management experience, be a self motivator, highly organized, able to set priorities, strong communication skills, outstanding customer service and have knowledge in administrative tools such as Word, Excel, Microsoft outlook, and other multi media tools.

This is a part-time position with flexible hours
Training beginning in April and May Official Start Date: June 14, 2010

All inquires can be sent to:
Joni Wiltz Berkley
jwiltz@schoolofperformingarts.com

The School of Performing Arts offers a diverse curriculum, taught by professional artists, that fosters creativity, builds self-esteem, and develops our students' life long love for the arts.